

2. Whether the petitioners are entitled to claim Rs.26,000/- and Rs.38,000/- from the respondent towards school fee of the 2nd petitioner?
3. Whether the petitioners are entitled to legal expenses and if so for what amount?

5. My findings on the above points are as under for the following amongst other:

- Point No.1 : No
- Point No.2 : No
- Point No.3 : Yes and as per final order

REASONS

6. Point No.1: There is no dispute about the petitioners being legally wedded wife and son of the respondent. The 1st petitioner in her affidavit filed in support of this application has claimed that she requires money from the respondent for maintenance of herself and the 2nd petitioner. The respondent being employee of Tata Elxsi Ltd. is having sufficient income and is capable of paying maintenance to the petitioners. She has also claimed that she is unemployed and she has no source of income (vide para 5 of her affidavit). Though the respondent has contended in para 7 of his objection that the 1st petitioner is well qualified and she is capable of maintaining herself by being
